

Almost Olympus

Tom Mody

---

All we need is one more step.
All we need is one more breath
All we ask is one last rush.
All we ask is never enough.

And with that we can almost see Olympus.

Our final steps into the fire.
Our final quest for cold desire.
Our beating hearts one in the same.
Our journey starts to finish the game.

And with that we can almost see Olympus.
And in fact we can almost please the gods.
