

Piece of Heaven

Tom Mody

---

Saying all the right things
Explaining that wants aren't greed
Fear in the slightest disrespect
Fear there's a secret misstep

Where's the light, is this the Way
If a lie has speed what should I say
That I trust in now no matter the pain
Don't look down
Don't look down
Dont look....

Somethings always haunting me
Somethings always taunting me.
I hit the ground
I'm on my face
A state of pain
A state of Grace.
It seems so dark
So many years wrong
It's blowing my mind
Blowing my mind
Blowing my...

[chorus]
I can't see the sun, I can't see the sun today
Am I the only one
Am I the only one to blame
Seems someone's blown up the sky
Got a piece of Heaven in my eye

Tasting all the extremes
Embracing all that relieves
What's one to think, could anyone care
I don't know how, I don't know. Don't know
Something's always wanting me
Truth has endurance
It's a matter of faith
Just hold on
Maybe today I'll cry
But can't wash it from my eye

[chorus]
I can't see the sun, I can't see the sun today
Am I the only one
Am I the only one to blame
Seems someone's blown up the sky
Got a piece of Heaven in my eye.
I can't see the sun
I can't see the sun today
Tell me that I'm the one
Blinded by the healing rays.
Seems someone's blown up my mind
Got a piece of Heaven when I die.
