

Why Tom Brady

Tom Mody

I'll never go back to the place that reminds me of you
I thought I'd seen the fall, but I'm just the fool
The years, the tears, the screams
Time and time again, shattered dreams
The giant killer can't save us now
No shield to protect us somehow.

[chorus]
Why Tom Brady- what has made you this way?
Your angry eyes, and battle cries
Why Tom Brady- what is there left to say?
Why must you win these games?

You tucked away, you're awkward ways.
Deflated without perfection's praise.
But over-time you're the last man
You're the last man standing tall
You defy all your time with grace.
Yet you still enrage the human race
There's a way to your revolution
How do we stop, stop this evolution

[repeat chorus]

[Bridge]
Why keep leading this path of destruction
Just move on to your famed induction.
Please leave me with my 6 gold rings
My precious things, my only things

You've stormed all the gates,. Avenged the hate
Are you mortal man. Can we make a stand

[repeat chorus]

Please leave me with my 6 gold rings
My precious things, my only things
[repeat]
