

Detector of Lies

Tom Mody

---

A word to the wise
You can not disguise what you are inside as I study you
The movements you make
The breathes that you take
I'll catch every step predicting the next

I slowly match your vibrations
I move as you move, a mirror to open your soul
You liken to my anticipations
Feeling comfort and ease, you show me what I want to see

{chorus}
Detector of lies
Unmasking your self reservations
Covertly inside
Place down your guard don't deceive
Detector of Lies
Covertly inside

With ease I now manipulate your verbal lip responses
You're kinesthetic I sense
Almost touching and feeling my words I've spoke unto you
Oh, how I master neural linguistics

We all try to guard our deceptions
Willful or not we don't always say what me mean
I break down the walls to communication
Feeling comfort and ease you show me just what I need

{chorus}
