

Push

Tom Mody

Push me, entice me
Excuse me, suffice me
Trust me to find my way home

Blind me, confuse me
Trip me, unwind me
Sedate me of all I've ever known

[chorus]
And If I stumble
Pick me back up on my feet again.
Give me the courage to carry on

Push me, extend me
Drag me, append me
My mind isn't clear enough to see

Hold me, caress me
Mold me, dress me
My heart isn't strong enough to bleed

[chorus]
And If I stumble
Pick me back up on my feet again
Give me the courage to carry on
I'm tired of strayin'
If my faith should ever be shaken
Strip me down and build me up again

Push me, duress me
Take me, possess me
Guide me in life and in song.
Free me, unbind me
When lost will you find me
Keep me from all that is wrong

[chorus]
And If I stumble
Pick me back up on my feet again
Give me the courage to carry on
I'm tired of strayin'
If my faith should ever be shaken
Strip me down and build me up again
[repeat]
