

Set to Explode

Tom Mody

[chorus]

Forge the fire.
Trip the wire.
Cue the choir.
We are set to explode.

Angels to the left of me.
Devil to the right.
Not gonna be the death of me.
I won't go down.
I'm headed for ascendency.
Blazing rocket light.
Let go of your dependency.
And don't go down.

I can feel you holding back.
I can see you falling flat.
I'll set you free from all of that.

[chorus]

Ego's to the left of me.
Amigos to the right.
Believing in the best of me.
Time to throw down.
Collision course with destiny.
Ready, aim, fight.
Trust in our resiliency.
We won't slow down.

When you feel you're falling back.
When you see you're holding flat.
Free the need for all of that.

[chorus]

I can see no holding back.
I can feel no falling flat.
The need is freed and right on track.
No going back.
