

Walkin' Again

Tom Mody

Hey baby.
Summer's coming say maybe.
And I'll be waiting like payday.
Will you be walkin' again.

Hey baby.
Autumn time is so rainy.
Kinda makes you go crazy.
'Til you come walking again.

You never come around.
But you're all over town.

Hey baby.
Summer's coming say maybe.
Before the autumn gets lazy.
And you stop walkin' again.

Hey baby.
When summer's gone just maybe.
You'll be my only lady.
And we'll go waking again.

So lady.
Just keep the others all waiting
It will drive them all bat-crazy.
When they see us walkin' again.

I'll never let you down.
I'll never play around.

It's crazy.
To think that maybe just maybe.
You'd be my holiday lady.
When we've stopped walkin' again.
